13-37-216. Limitations on contributions -- adjustment. (1) (a) Subject to adjustment as provided for in subsection (4), aggregate contributions for each election in a campaign by a political committee or by an individual, other than the candidate, to a candidate are limited as follows:

(i) for candidates filed jointly for the office of governor and lieutenant governor, not to exceed $500;

- 1) There are multiple incidents of reporting or mis-reporting of funds being donated by individuals who have exceeded their contribution limits. There is no further record of those funds being returned to those individuals. Please refer to documentation on file in the Political Practices office supporting this.

13-37-217. Contributions in name of undisclosed principal. A person may not make a contribution of the person's own money or of another person's money to any other person in connection with any election in any other name than that of the person who in truth supplies the money. A person may not knowingly receive a contribution or enter or cause the contribution to be entered in the person's accounts or records in another name than that of the person by whom it was actually furnished.

- 1) There are multiple accounts of anonymous donations being received to the campaign through cash and credit card donations. Please refer to the documentation on file in the Political Practices office supporting this.

13-37-230 Expenditures; 13-37-230. Disclosure of expenditures made. (1) Except as provided in subsection (3), each report required by this chapter must disclose the following information:

(a) the full name and mailing address (occupation and the principal place of business, if any) of each person to whom expenditures have been made by the committee or candidate during the reporting period, including the amount, date, and purpose of each expenditure and the total amount of expenditures made to each person;

(b) the full name and mailing addresses (occupation and the principal place of business, if any) of each person to whom an expenditure for personal services, salaries, and reimbursed expenses have been made, including the amount, date, and purpose of that expenditure and the total amount of expenditures made to each person;

(c) the total sum of expenditures made by a political committee or candidate during the reporting period;

(d) the name and address of each political committee or candidate to which the reporting committee or candidate made any transfer of funds, together with the amount and dates of all transfers;

(e) the name of any person to whom a loan was made during the reporting period, including the full name and mailing address (occupation and principal place of business, if any) of that person, and the full name and mailing address (occupation and principal place of business, if any) of the endorers, if any,

and the date and amount of each loan;

(f) the amount and nature of debts and obligations owed by a political committee or candidate in the form prescribed by the commissioner; and

(g) other information that may be required by the commissioner to fully disclose the disposition of funds used to support or oppose candidates or issues.

(2) Reports of expenditures made to a consultant, advertising agency, polling firm, or other person that performs services for or on behalf of a candidate or political committee must be itemized and described in sufficient detail to disclose the specific services performed by the entity to which payment or reimbursement was made.

(3) A candidate is required to report the information specified in this section only if the transactions involved were undertaken for the purpose of influencing an election.

- 1) Expense checks written to myself and other staff members "employed" by the campaign have not appeared on filed and publicized reports.
- 2) There is no evidence that State Wage and labor laws are being reported through this campaign.
- 3) Expenses that have been referred to in various emails, ie: postage, Lincoln Day Dinner tickets, Sharon Angle endorsements, signs, marketing materials, etc. have not appeared on filed expense reports
