COMPLAINT: Lack of a disclaimer on an automated political telephone message: Title 13, Chapter 35-225

On May 3, 2016 I received a robo call from the campaign of Mark Sweeney, Democratic Candidate for Public Service Commission, District 4. I saved the call. The phone number ascribed to the call is 406-552-0595. The full transcribed message appears below:

Hi, this is Amanda Curtis calling to ask you to join me in supporting Mark Sweeney for Public Service Commissioner in the Democratic Primary on June 7th. I know Mark can bring the PSC back into balance by working hard to ensure Montanans have the lowest possible utility rates and making sure we have clean, reliable, and affordable electricity. I think that's just what we need in our next public service commissioner. I hope you'll join me by voting for Mark Sweeney in the Democratic Primary on June 7th.
