Re: Formal Complaint Against Governor Bullock, et al

*I've been clear from the beginning where I stand with Citizens United.....I stand with making sure that elections are decided by individuals not unlimited corporate or labor expenditures. Candidate Steve Bullock, October 9, 2012, Billings Debate

*"We have seen the rise of so-called 'dark money' groups that target candidates, yet refuse to tell the voting public who they really are and what they represent. They hide behind made up names...They operate out of post office boxes or Washington, D.C. office buildings." Governor Steve Bullock, January 30, 2012, Helena, State of the State

Dear Commissioner Murry,

I am submitting a formal complaint to your office that Steve Bullock, his campaign, and third-party groups violated Montana Campaign Finance laws. (See Exhibits 1 and 2, Bullock for Governor Webpage and Endorsements). I believe in many instances these violations appear intentional and contrived to circumvent requirements of disclosure laws. Consequently, I feel Montana voters were deprived of important, and legally required, information. While this election revealed a new era of political spending it did not eliminate regulatory safeguards such as disclosure. It did not eliminate prohibitions on coordination between candidates, their agents, and supposed independent spending committees. (See, ARM 44.10.323(3) and (4) and reporting 44.10.511 and 513). (See also, Complaint(s) Against Rice and Hill County Republican Central Committee, May, 2002; and Montanans for a True Democrat Club, April 2, 2008).

Steve Bullock, the Montana Democratic Party, Montana Conservation Voters, Planned Parenthood of Montana, MT AFL-CIO/Build Montana PAC, MT-JET PAC, and others all used the services and employees of Hilltop Public Solutions, or its affiliates, or other vendors, to coordinate, manage, design and distribute campaign material to influence the results of the 2012 Montana gubernatorial election. All persons identified here are obviously politically sophisticated. They certainly have resources readily available to either abide by the law or circumvent it. I believe their acts exemplify a lack of candor from individuals now purporting to champion the cause of campaign finance reform and full public disclosure.

This complaint is not a defense of anyone's underhanded tactics to avoid disclosure. I abhor secretive, last minute, calculated and contrived campaigning by anyone seeking to influence my vote without saying who they really are. That goes for Democrats as well as Republicans, the left or right, and everyone in between. It certainly goes for a position as important as the Governor's.

II. Factual Basis for Complaint:

Steve Bullock: Steve Bullock the Democratic candidate for the office of Governor during the 2012 election. Kevin O'Brien was the campaign manager and deputy treasurer for the Friends of Steve Bullock which was the principal campaign committee for Steve Bullock. Melanie Brock was a prominent staffer on the Bullock campaign.

On at least three occasions, and at critical times during the campaign, Bullock or his agents met with agents supposedly involved in otherwise independent campaigning involving the 2012 Governor's race. Bullock's campaign finance reports list expenditures for conference calls on June 20, July 25, and October 20, 2012, and travel expenses on February 16 and October 20, 2012 on activity relating to S&B Public Solutions. See Attachment A, Governor Bullock Campaign Reports (following Exhibits); See also III. Summary of Information from Political Committee Reports, contained herein). As described below S&B Public Solutions uses the registered trade name "Hilltop Public Solutions." (See Exhibit 3).

Throughout the campaign, Bullock directly paid substantial sums to Hilltop Public Solutions/S&B Public Solutions or its affiliates including, or involving, Hilltop itself, Three Point Media, Mo Elleithee, Matt Peterson, Eric Ohlsen, Molly Bell, Libby Smelker and Aaron Browning. (See Exhibit 4, screenshot HilltopPublicSolutions webpage "Meet Our Team" and "State Affairs"; See also, Attachment A; and III. Summary of Bullock Reports). Bullock campaign payments for these services were mailed to 1000 Potomac Street NW Suite 500, Washington, DC 20007. Id.

Barrett Kaiser is a partner at Hilltop and runs the Montana office. He serves as Hilltop's Director of Western Operations. Kaiser is a longtime Democratic campaigner in Montana assisting with four US Senate elections here, and also works on state and local campaigns. His experience has earned him recognition as one of Montana's top Democratic campaign consultants. (See, Exhibit 5).

Mo Elleithee is a founding partner of both Hilltop and Three Point. (See Exhibit 6, screenshot indicating Elleithee's role in Hilltop and Three Point). Three Point Media boasted that through the summer and fall of 2012 it helped Bullock overcome a 14-point (sometimes 13-point) deficit to win despite being outspent by outside groups, and without running a single negative ad. (See Exhibit 7, Three Point Governor Bullock Reel; and Links to other Bullock reels). Mr. Elleithee's own postings announcing the creation of Three Point Media indicate his intention to continue with Hilltop by working "crazy long hours." (Exhibit 6).

Matt Peterson, Hilltop employee, states he worked on "opposition research and independent expenditures" during Bullock's election. See HPS staff directory and screenshot from mattpetersonlinkedin.JPG. (Exhibit 8).

Bullock's campaign lists payments to Eric Ohlsen for "consulting – research". (See, Attachment A, and III Summary of Governor's Reports). Payments to Ohlsen are sent to Hilltop. Exhibit 9 shows Ohlsen is an opposition researcher from Oregon.² While Ohlsen's business is common in today's political environment, and is certainly legal, the fact that both Bullock and Hilltop benefitted from the work indicates the Governor and Hilltop coordinated, and third-parties who also used Hilltop or their affiliates benefitted from the work done by Mr. Ohlsen.

There are other connections between Hilltop, the Bullock campaign and third-party groups. Libby Smelker, a Hilltop employee, and Bullock's campaign manager Kevin O'Brien, "became friends" as posted on her Facebook page less than three weeks before the election and nine days before the last Bullock payment to Hilltop (S&B). (Exhibit 10.) Bullock's own Facebook account lists Libby Smelker. (Exhibit 11). Smelker is also affiliated with Planned Parenthood. (Exhibit 12).

A more intriguing interconnection between the Governor, his campaign and many of these supporting groups is revealed through Molly Bell. Molly Bell is an associate in Hilltop's Montana office. (Exhibit 13). Molly Bell is also on the executive board for Big Sky Democrats which organized group affiliated fundraisers and speaking engagements for Bullock during the campaign. (Exhibit 14). Kevin O'Brien is listed as the board's "State Political Director, and Bullock campaign staffer Melanie Brock is also the board's President."³ (Id.) Kevin O'Brien's wife Anna is the Treasure for Big Sky Democrats. (Exhibit 15). The address for Big Sky Democrats on the C-2 is their home-"830 8th Ave. Helena, MT 59601." (Id.) Despite at least a spotty reporting record since 2008, Big Sky Democrats filed an amended C-2 in 2012, but no other reports. Big Sky Democrats does not properly list its officers or describe its purpose or the candidates it supports.

Ms. Bell is also an active member of the Montana Conservation Voters which lists her as a Yellowstone Chapter Board member and notes her affiliation with Hilltop, Big Sky Democrats and Forward Montana. (Exhibit 16). Forward Montana is a Missoula-based 501(c)(4) that describes itself as a non-partisan organization. (Exhibit 17).

Joining Ms. Bell on the Forward Montana Board is is her associate in the Hilltop Montana office, Aaron Browning and Chris Cavazos, MT AFL-CIO Political Director. (See Exhibit 17; See also Exhibit 18 describing Aaron Browning's role with Hilltop).

On behalf of "Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana," Ms. Bell sought to hire someone as a "part time organizer in Bozeman" to recruit volunteers and "talk to voters ahead of the 2012 election!" Among other things the advertised position involved "extensive door canvassing" and "phone banking." Interested parties were directed to specifically contacting only "Molly Bell" at "(406)698-9440" to interview or send resumes to mollybell@gmail.com. (Exhibit 19).

Marco Guido: a profile for Marco Guido provides that he is a "principal at Hilltop Public Solutions" a consulting firm specializing in grassroots coalition building and campaigns for "political and corporate clients." His position with Hilltop is prominently featured in the profile and specifically links with "Hilltop Public Solutions - Meet Our Team - Marco Guido. Guido is credited as Brushfire Strategies founder. (See Exhibit 4; and Exhibit 20).

In addition to meetings with Bullock, Hilltop provided services to several independent expenditure groups including; Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana, the Montana Democratic Party, the MT AFL-CIO affiliated Build Montana PAC and others. Brushfire Strategies shares the Hilltop address in DC and Hilltop's New York address is the same as Greenlight Media Strategies. Build Montana PAC paid Greenlight $128,884 for printing and mailing expenses "Supporting Steve Bullock for Gov."⁴

Brushfire provides an array of campaign related services which were employed by Montana political committees involved in the 2012 Montana Gubernatorial election supporting Bullock. Brushfire lists many clients including state democratic parties, SEIU and candidates. Brushfire's payments were made to Hilltop's address. (Exhibit 21).

Greenlight Media Strategies also features prominently in Montana's gubernatorial election. Greenlight was founded by Laura Walters Tamman. Greenlight is essentially a direct mail vendor. They specialize in persuasion-oriented mailings for political and nonprofit clients. They draft copy, write copy, print and even drop material. Greenlight boasts managing direct mail from beginning to end. Greenlight's address is exactly the same as Hilltop's New York division -- 32 Court Street , Suite 2109, Brooklyn, NY 11201. (Exhibit 22).

The Montana Democratic Party, Jim Elliott, Chair, lists a December 20, 2012, payment to Hilltop for "Management Fee/IE Program." Three days after a call with Hilltop (October 23, 2012), the Montana Democratic Party lists an expenditure to "Mission Control Inc. for "printing & postage/IE-Bullock." The Montana Democratic Party Makes another expenditure to Mission Control, Inc. is on October 31, 2012. The Montana Democratic Party also lists expenditures to Hilltop for "Non Federal Consulting Fees" on June 28, 2012, and on October 10, 2012. (See Exhibit 23; Attachment B Reports filed by Montana Democratic Party; and III Summary of Reports by Political Committees herein).

Suzi Kopec is on the Board of Planned Parenthood and is the Treasure of Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana. Planned Parenthood also lists Kari Kaiser, wife of Hilltop Partner Barrett Kaiser, as a Board Member and Stacey Anderson and Lana Rae as staff. Of the seven Planned Parenthood Advocates Directors, six are also on the Planned Parenthood Board. (See Exhibit 24, 2010 990-EZ PPAMT).

Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana reports expenditures to Hilltop for canvasser salaries from October 26, 2012 through November 7, 2012 supporting ⁴ The Governor also made large expenditures to NGP VAN, a leading technology provider to Democratic and progressive campaigns offering fundraising, professional and integrated websites, email management and service at all levels. NGP VAN, not only list the Governor as a client, but Planned Parenthood, Conservation Voters, and unions such as the AFL-CIO and SEIU.

Bullock. Planned Parenthood Advocates also made payments supporting Bullock to Hilltop for an independent expenditure mailing on September 21, 2012, and for "management fees October 12" reported October 29, 2012. Planned Parenthood Advocates lists other numerous payments to Hilltop for independent expenditures supporting Bullock including payments for, Facebook ads, graphic design work, printing and mailing expenses, and calls. Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana lists payment to Hilltop affiliates Greenlight Media Strategies (printing and mailing 11/1/2012) and Brush Fire Strategies (calls 11/7/2012). Both expenditure descriptions indicate being for the purpose of "supporting Bullock for Governor." (See Exhibit 25, PPA-MT separate organization, and samples PPAMT express advocacy, together with Attachment C PPA-MT Reports and III Summary of Reports herein).

Montana Conservation Voters Action Fund is a 527 political organization with a purpose of electing statewide candidates, and is a committee of Montana Conservation Voters. (See, Exhibit 26). On October 15, 2012 Montana Conservation Voters paid Hilltop for "copy/printing/postage/delivery" of an independent expenditure piece supporting "Steve Bullock." Montana Conservation Voters paid Brushfire Strategies for "8765 Phone Banking" to support Bullock. The expenditure is reported November 26, 2012 as occurring on November 8, 2012. The committee treasurer for Montana Conservation Voters does not provide a full list of additional officers and directors, a purpose for the committee, or name candidates it supports or opposes. (See, Attachment D Reports by Montana Conservation Action Fund together with III Summary of MCV AC Reports herein).

Between June 21, 2012 and October 20, 2012 out-of-state labor groups spent millions supporting the Bullock campaign. The Democratic Governors Association of Montana received $1.85 million in contributions with money coming from the Laborer's Political League ($350,000) and SEIU ($275,000). They ultimately sent over $2.865 million. DGAM spent nearly all its contributions on Bullock with a majority of expenditures going to Montana Jobs, Education, and Technology PAC (JET PAC) and the Montana Democratic Party. JET PAC spent $1.6 million on ads opposing Rick Hill and supporting Bullock. They also spent $54,136 on "research" opposing Hill. (See, Exhibit 27, Governors' association' activities in Montana Race, Missoulian, August 18, 2012; together with III Summary; and Attachment E Reports by Democratic Governors Association).

Build Montana PAC is a political committee run by the Montana AFL-CIO. Build Montana also paid Hilltop to manage independent expenditures supporting Governor Bullock. Build Montana PAC paid Hilltop on $9,000 for graphic design work. Build Montana spent $128,884 on a mailing supporting Governor Bullock. Build Montana also paid Brushfire Strategies $12,230 supporting Steve Bullock for Governor. The payment was sent to Hilltop's Washington, D.C. address. (See III Summary of Build Montana PAC expenditures contained herein; together with Attachment F Reports by Build Montana PAC).

Mr. Cavazos is Political Director for the Montana State AFL-CIO. He represents "the Montana AFL-CIO in Political, Community, and Legislative coalitions." (Exhibit 28). Chris Cavazos posted jobs for Montana AFL-CIO field organizers with responsibilities to "contact and persuade" voters through "canvassing and phone banking", "coordinating" with other canvassers, an ability to "connect with voters", and promising successful applicants will gain "Campaign experience." (Exhibit 29).

The American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees based in Washington, D.C., and also created by the AFL-CIO, made $864,315 in expenditures supporting Bullock between September 5, 2012 and October 15, 2012.

The Montana Education Association-Montana Federation of Teachers (MEA-MFT) spent $95,455 supporting Bullock through their COPE PAC including an expenditure to Element Design to "Design billboard Steve Bullock for Gov.". (See Exhibit 30). COPE PAC report expenditures..... MEA-MFT does not reveal any of its donors. The group also made expenditures by paying for printing and mailing cost through Working Montana.

Again, Bullock vendor, NGP VAN operates for the purpose of providing service to Democratic candidates and "progressive" campaigns and openly lists its clients as including Planned Parenthood, Conservation Voters and unions like the AFL-CIO and SEIU. Montana JET PAC also reports spending money on NGP VAN on at least two occasions for $525 each.

Exhibit 31 contains a number of samples of third-party campaign materials.

III. Summary of Information from Political Committee Reports

Governor Bullock's Campaign Reports the Following Expenditures

The report filed October 5, 2011 covering July, August and September, 2011 shows a $2,000 expenditure mailed to Hilltop's Washington, D.C. office, "1000 Potomac State, NW, Suite 500" for "consulting" by "Eric Ohlsen" on July 29, 2011. The campaign paid NGP VAN, Inc. $665 on 8/29/2011 and $700 on 9/9/2011 for "Online services." They also paid "Element L Design" $2,405 on 9/9/2011 for "materials." Element L Design is located at 2675 Cody Drive, East Helena, MT 59635. Melanie Brock was reimbursed $31.43 for fuel on 7/20/2011.

The January 5, 2012 report included expenditures for: Element L Design, $3,000 on 10/10/2011 for "design and web development." That same day, 10/10/2011, Bullock sent $9,500 to "1000 Potomac State NW, Suite 500," for "consulting - research" by Eric Ohlsen. Three Point Media was paid $8,431.37 for "consulting" on 10/10/2011, and the payment went to "1000 Potomac St. NW, Washington, DC 20007."

The 6/25/2012 report covering 5/27/2012 to 6/20/2012 shows the expenditures to

"S&B Public Solutions of 1000 Potomac Street NW #500, Washington, DC 20007" for a "conference call."

The 8/10/2012 C-5 shows the following expenditures: Another payment to S&B Public Solutions $13.25 for another "conference call" which took place on 7/25/2012, and, again, on 10/20/2012 for yet another "conference call", and "transportation."

The 10/22/2012 report shows a $200 payment to Luke Duran for "graphic design" on 10/17/2012 at 2675 Cody Drive, East Helena, MT 59635 which is the same address for Element L. It also shows three expenditures to Three Point Media at "1000 Potomac St. NW, Suite 500, Washington, DC" for $49,125, $44,004, and $28,018 on 9/11, 10/6 and 10/14/2012 respectively.

The post election report filed 11/23/2012 shows an expenditure to Three Point at Hilltop's DC address for "media production" on 11/6/2012.

Build Montana PAC reported 11/1/2012 expenditures on a C-7E expenditures to Greenlight Media Strategies for "Printing & Mailing expenses - Supporting Steve Bullock for Gov" ($128,884.32) sent to "32 Court St Ste2109 Brooklyn, NY 11201" (Hilltop NY); and a payment to "Hilltop Public Solutions, 1000 Potomac St NW Ste 500, Washington, DC 20007" in the amount of $9,000 for "Graphic Design work - statewide races". Their post-election 11/23/2012 report also shows a $12,230.48 payment to "Brushfire Strategies, 1000 Potomac St NW, Ste 500, Washington, DC 20007" for "Paid calls for Steve Bullock for Governor" on "11/7/12".

Planned Parent Advocates of Montana filed a report on 11/20/2012 showing payments to "Hilltop Solutions" at "1000 Potomac St. NW #500, Washington, DC 20007" for "IE Tester/Bullock salaries for paid canvassers" between "10/26-11/7 2012" ($13,736), "IE Tester/Bullock Legislative & Governor mailing" on 9/21/2012 ($4,500) and "IE Tester/Bullock Management Fees October 12" on 10/29/2012 ($6,000). All payments made with "CK # 3839". They also show Facebook ads "for Bullock" in the amount of $987.29, and $292.58 "against Hill". Other Facebook ads are shown as payments through PP Advocates of MT and Stacey Anderson and against (I assume) Hill.

The Montana Democratic Party paid Hilltop Public Solutions for "Nonfederal Campaign Consulting Fees" on 6/28/2012 ($3,500) and on 10/10/2012 ($10,500). On 10/17/2012 they paid Mission Control, Inc. $71,967.76 for "Printing & Postage/IE Bullock" of Mansfield Center, CT 06250. The MDP also paid fees to Brushfire and Greenlight apparently for IEs relating to legislative candidates. They also paid Element L for "Design/Candidate Mail" without designation to the candidate. The payment was made for 11/2/2012 in the amount of $4,200. On 10/23 and 10/31/2012 MDP made substantial payments ($57,640.56 and $172,213.80) to Mission Control, Inc. for "Printing & Postage/IE - Bullock". The report covering the period 11/22/2012 and 12/31/2012 shows a payment to Hilltop DC for "Management Fee/IE Program on 12/20/2012 for $3,500.

The Montana Conservation Voters show several expenditures in support of Bullock in their 10/24/2012 report. On 8/31/2012 the MCV Fund pays $2,845.77 to the MVC corporation for "Payroll expenses" in connection with "IE Steve Bullock Governor." They also reimburse the corporation for staff travel on 9/27/2012. The MCV Fund pays Greenlight Media $14,223 on 9/27/2012 for "IE Steve Bullock, Governor" and sends the payment to Hilltop's Brooklyn, New York address "32 Court St. Suite 210." On 10/15/2012 they pay Hilltop $1,5000 for printing/copying/delivery of Bullock IEs. The payment goes to Hilltop's DC address.

On their November 26, 2012 report the MCV Fund reports a $15,787.20 expenditure for Bullock which it says was made "11/08/12." The expenditure was for "phone banking" and the payment went to Hilltop's DC address.

IV. Claims and Legal Reference Pertaining to Violations

A person who violates any of the provisions of Montana's campaign finance laws is subject to the civil penalty provisions of MCA § 13-37-128 which provides a penalty of $500 or three times the amount of contribution or expenditure whichever is greater.

Coordination destroys the independence of expenditures and the expenditures are then treated as campaign contributions. (See, ARM 44.10.323(3) and (4)). Coordinated expenditures must be reported as in-kind contributions. (See, ARMs 44.10.511 and 44.10. 513). This results in excessive contributions, per Mont Code Ann. § 13-37-216, and reporting violations by the candidate and the third-party groups. (See, MCA 13-37-229).

A. Express Advocacy

In applying Buckley v. Valeo, 424 U.S. 1 (1976); Austin v. Michigan Chamber of Commerce, 494 U.S. 652 (1990); FEC v. Massachusetts Citizens for Life, Inc. 479 U.S. 238 (1986); and Faucher v. FEC, 928 F.2d 468 (1991), your office consistently maintains the standard that speech is "express" if it unmistakable and unambiguous and suggestive of only one plausible meaning and that speech is "advocacy" if there is a clear plea for action. Any reasonable person should be able to interpret communications as ads advocating the election or defeat of a candidate. As the exhibits and reports indicate there was an unmistakable and unambiguous plea for a vote supporting Governor Bullock's campaign. Any reasonable person would not interpret the communication as anything else but expressly advocating support for those candidates, and reports filed clearly indicate the intent to support the election of Bullock.

B. Coordination

The expenditures by the groups herein described were not independent of Governor Bullock's campaign. An independent expenditure means an expenditure for communications containing express advocacy which are not made with the cooperation, consent, or consultation of a candidate or their agents. 44.10.323(3), ARM. These kinds of coordinated expenditures become and should have been reported as contributions by Steve Bullock's campaign. The Governor and these groups failed to file these reports. The cost of these professionally produced ads and the reports obviously show the costs far exceed contribution limits. (Mont. Code Ann. § 13-37-216).

C. Prior COPP Coordination Decisions

There COPP has previously issued rulings concern coordination between a candidate and political committees. While none of the cases are on such a scale as this, there are cases that discuss and illustrate the existing laws and regulations.

Given the inter-related activities of the participants through use of common vendors (Hilltop) and political affiliations it is difficult to comprehend how these parties maintained the separation necessary to avoid coordinating their campaign efforts. A communication is coordinated if made in cooperation, consultation, or in concert with, or at the request or suggestion of the candidate, his campaign, or an agent. Due to interrelationships and interactions with Hilltop and others, the Governor's campaign and these groups allowed Hilltop to acquire vital information about each campaign's plans, projects, activities and needs. Hilltop, and other vendors, were able to use that vital information in creating materials, production and distribution of campaign communications for each respective client's campaign.

In the Matter of Rice and the Hill County Republican Central Committee, the COPP held the definitions of independent expenditure and coordination contain precise language specifying that an expenditure, in order to be independent of a candidate, must not involve consultation with the candidate or an agent of the candidate. (See, In the Matter of Rice, decided, May, 2002 p. 9; See also, In the Matter of Montanans for a True Democrat Club, April, 2008 (IEs not coordinated with or made in consultation permitted, no common vendor & no consent or encouragement)).

D. These Expenditures were not Independent

Again, Montana law, ARM 44.10.323, defines "independent expenditure" as an expenditure for communications expressly advocating...the defeat of a candidate...which is not made with the cooperation or prior consent or in consultation with, or at the request or suggestion of, a candidate or political committee or an agent of a candidate or political committee. According to ARM 44.10.323(3) independent expenditures are required to be reported as provided in ARM 44.10.531. Pursuant to ARM 44.10.531(4), an independent expenditure shall be reported in accordance with the procedures for reporting other expenditures. "In addition, a person making an independent expenditure shall report the name of the candidate...the independent expenditure was intended to benefit." As a result reporting violations occurred and campaign contribution limits were exceeded:

Governor Bullock Spending on Hilltop and Affiliates: $177,258

Spending by Third-Party Groups:

- Montana Democratic Party $21,700
- Build Montana PAC $150,115
- MT Conservation Voters Action Fund $32,140
- Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana $37,340
- MT JET PAC/Others $1,600,000⁵

V. Conclusion

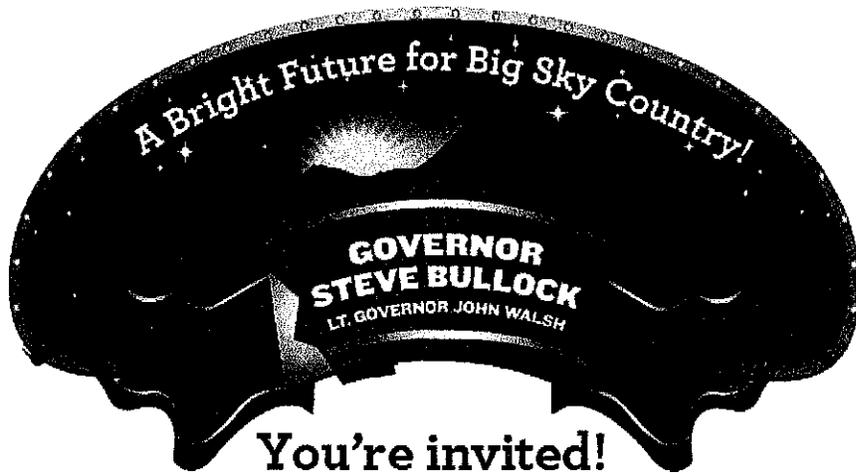

I feel the only logical conclusion, based on the proceeding law and evidence is that coordination occurred between the Governor and supporters during the 2012 election, and that a substantial penalty by your office is warranted.

⁵ MT JET PAC Received $2,865,510 from DGA a substantial amount of which was spent on IEs supporting Governor Bullock or opposing Hill.

How to Interpret these Evaluations

Project Vote Smart displays all known interest group ratings for each candidate and official, regardless of issue or bias.

Keep in mind that ratings done by special interest groups often do not represent a non-partisan stance. In addition, some groups select votes that tend to favor members of one political party over another, rather than choosing votes based solely on issues concerns. Nevertheless, they can be invaluable in showing where an incumbent has stood on a series of votes in the past one or two years, especially when ratings by groups on all sides of an issue are compared. Website links, if available, and descriptions of the organizations offering performance evaluations are accessible by clicking on the name of the group.

Most performance evaluations are displayed in a percentage format. However, some organizations present their ratings in the form of a letter grade or endorsement based on voting records, interviews, survey results and/or sources of campaign funding. For consistency and ease in understanding, Project Vote Smart converts all scores into a percentage when possible. Please visit the group's website or call 1-888-VOTESMART for more specific information.

As the US political scene has gone from one media crisis to another, the Canadian political scene has been very quiet and tranquil. Why then has the US Dollar clobbered the Canadian Dollar value since January 1? I think Ottawa has quietly failed to find a way to get the oil to Asia and Texas. And until they find a way the world will not need Cdn$ to buy our oil.

Though political events in Washington, D.C. may generate the most elite media coverage, today's more complex public affairs conflicts often take place off the national stage in statehouses and city halls across the country. Hilltop's bipartisan national network of seasoned operatives gives our clients the ability to inject their voice into these local debates.

Whether it is state-level direct lobbying, local grasstops, intelligence gathering or coalition building, Hilltop has done it and won. We've executed both multi-state campaigns for Fortune 500 companies and smaller single-state efforts for clients looking to pass individual bills. Our state partners can perform a number of functions. They can gather information, secure meetings and represent you directly before state lawmakers. They can generate high-level grasstops support to complement your lobbying, or they can form, recruit and manage third party coalitions that bring allies to your side.

With Hilltop, you get a seamless transition and the ability to run campaigns efficiently and effectively across the country. We help you maximize your resources and get up and running in minimal time.

Barrett Kaiser

Partner

A Partner at Hilltop, Barrett Kaiser runs the Montana office as the firm's Director of Western Operations. Barrett draws on more than a decade of political experience, including nearly 11 years as a top advisor to U.S. Senator Max Baucus, chairman of the U.S. Senate Finance Committee.

As a senior strategist and advisor to Baucus during two reelection campaigns – in 2002 and again in 2008 – Barrett helped develop an aggressive communications and messaging strategy that helped the senator win reelection overwhelmingly in both cases.

Services:

- Grasstops Campaigns
- Political Campaign Consulting
- Strategic Communications

Experience:

- Highly regarded as a public relations expert and crisis manager, Barrett has assisted many federal, state, and local campaigns in Montana, including U.S. Senator Jon Tester's dramatic upset over Conrad Burns in 2006.
- Barrett worked his way up through the ranks of the Baucus operation – including a 6-year run as Communications Director, speechwriter, and chief spokesman – and finished his tenure as Montana Chief of Staff in March of 2010.
- Barrett came to the Baucus office 1999 after graduating with a degree in Communication Studies from the University of Montana. Barrett started in the senior U.S. senator's Washington, D.C., office as a Legislative Correspondent.

When not hip-deep into politics, you can find Barrett casting a fly on one of Montana's famed trout streams. A former fishing guide who's travelled the globe with a fly rod in hand, Barrett organized a Montana fly fishing excursion for President Barack Obama in 2009.

Barrett is a native of Denver, Colorado. He lives in Billings with his wife, Kari.

Hilltop Public Solutions
2006 – Present (7 years)

—MO ELLEITHEE E-MAILS: "Another firm, a new partner, and a West Coast presence. And just in time for 2010! Three Point Media is a new full-service communications firm that combines my experience in campaign communications with the brilliant creativity of award-winning media consultants Mattis Goldman and Clare Gannon. With an expanded team, and a presence in DC and LA, we're looking forward to making some pretty interesting ads. But because winning today takes more than TV, we're determined to help our clients move opinions across all media channels, old and new; paid and earned. Clare and I are set up in Georgetown, while Mattis gets to hold down the fort in our Los Angeles office. And to prove the point that I like to work crazy long hours, I'll also keep offering general consulting services as a partner at Hilltop Public Solutions where, nearly four years after opening our doors, business is stronger than ever!" Reiterating: Mo is also staying at Hilltop. www.threepoint.com

Mo Elleithee

A founding partner of Three Point Media, Mo Elleithee is a nationally recognized communications strategist who has been involved in some of the most high-profile Democratic campaigns of the past fifteen years.

During the 2008 presidential election, Mo was Senior Spokesman and Traveling Press Secretary for Hillary Clinton's presidential campaign, where he served as lead spokesman on the campaign plane, interfacing between the candidate and her traveling press corps. He also played key roles in the two previous presidential cycles, as New Hampshire Communications Director for Wes Clark (2004) and Bill Bradley (2000).

Mo has also been a key communications strategist for local and statewide candidates across the country including Sen. Tim Kaine's (D-VA) successful campaigns for Senate and Governor, Sen. Tom Udall (D-N.M.), former Virginia Gov. Mark Warner, and numerous other campaigns in Arizona, California, Florida, Illinois, Massachusetts, North Carolina, Rhode Island and Virginia.

He's advised a number of Democratic Party committees, helping the Democratic Party of Virginia take back the State Senate in 2007, managing the Democratic Senate Campaign Committee's 2006 Independent Expenditure campaign in Virginia against then-Senator George Allen, assisting the DSCC's efforts in the 2010 Connecticut Senate race on behalf of Richard Blumenthal, and as a media advisor to the DCCC's 2012 independent expenditure campaign.

Mo serves on the faculty of Georgetown University's Public Policy Institute, where he teaches a graduate-level course on campaign management and strategy. He received his undergraduate degree from the Georgetown University School of Foreign Service, and his Master of Arts from The Graduate School of Political Management at The George Washington University.

He is a frequent commentator on CNN, MSNBC, PBS and FOX News, and can often be found at Georgetown basketball games cheering on his beloved Hoyas. Mo lives in Washington with his wife Tali, and their daughter Sadie.

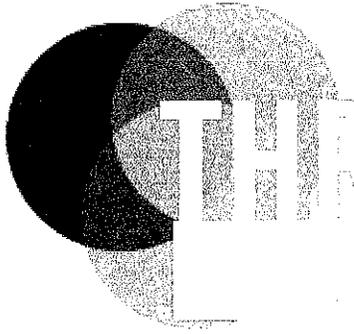

Governor Steve Bullock

In 2008, we helped Steve Bullock win a hard-fought campaign for Attorney General of Montana. With Governor Brian Schweitzer term-limited, Bullock ran for Governor in 2012 – facing a strong Republican opponent, a barrage of outside spending, and the state’s clear Republican tilt in the presidential campaign

By the summer of 2012, outside groups were already flooding Montana’s airwaves with attack ads. With limited resources, we leveraged the one asset no one else had: Steve Bullock.

From the Summer Olympics through the fall, we helped Bullock build a personal connection with voters – without airing a single negative ad. Despite being outspent by over a million dollars in outside money, Bullock overcame a 14-point deficit at the top of the ticket – and won the closest governor’s race of 2012.

Eric Ohlsen and his three staffers hang out in their new office space on Southeast Morrison Street in Portland, looking like guys with high-tech startup dreams.

Motoya Nakamura/The Oregonian

Eric Ohlsen is an opposition researcher who works for Democratic campaigns.

Electronic gear is scattered about and it doesn't look as if anyone has worried too much about the decor. Rounded and pale, Ohlsen looks like he spends a lot of time inside staring at a computer screen.

Ohlsen is indeed a tech geek, but his focus is unearthing the hidden backgrounds of political candidates, not figuring out another smartphone app. He owns an opposition research firm, (http://www.ohlsenresearch.com/index.html) these days as much of a must-hire for campaigns as media consultants and pollsters.

"I think I'm actually making a difference," says Ohlsen, 33. "I think it is important that people know the difference between Candidate A and Candidate B."

Of course, a little online research on Ohlsen shows that, behind the cherubic face and blond hair, there's a steely political operative who has a bit of a swagger. On his Twitter feed, he offers this raffish self-description: "I dig through the trashcans of the internet."

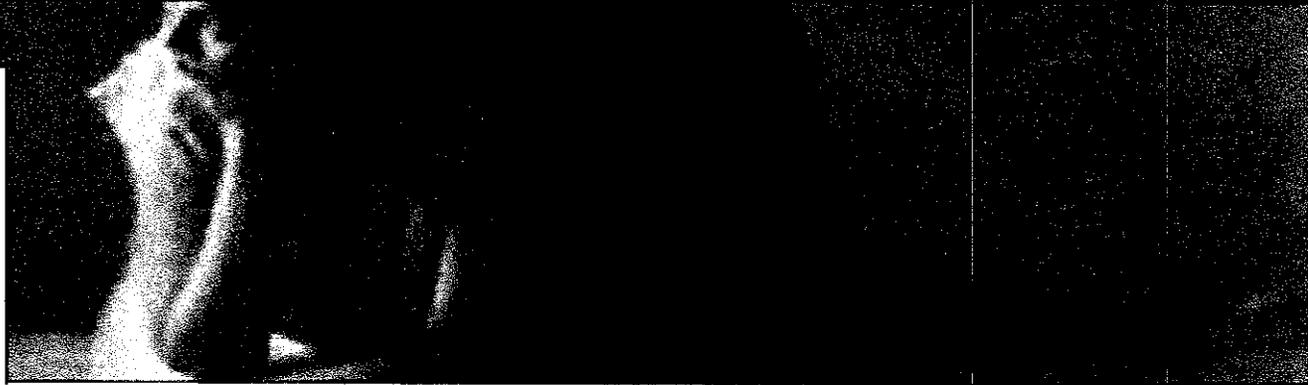

Ohlsen happens to work for Democrats, but opposition research is an ecumenical affair. While Ohlsen is working for the Oregon House Democratic caucus this year, Republicans hired an Oregon City private investigator named Scott Castleman

Notable moments in opposition research history

Willie Horton: In the 1988 presidential race, Republican George Bush attacked Massachusetts Gov. Michael Dukakis, the Democratic nominee, for having a weekend furlough program for convicts. The Bush campaign, as well as an independent group supporting Bush, focused on convicted murderer Willie Horton, who was furloughed and then twice raped a woman after

Molly Bell

Profile:

The grand mountains and icy glacial lakes of Northwestern Montana lit a spark in Molly Bell at an early age. Tagging along on hikes through the wilderness with her father, Jack Bell of Whitefish, the Ohio- native learned first hand the importance of protecting the wild places of Montana.

Her mother a graduate of the University of Montana in Missoula, Molly's parents always hoped to someday make the move to Big Sky Country. Finally, when Molly was 14, the Ohio family left Cleveland behind and headed west. They settled in Billings where Molly completed high school at West High before setting her sights on Furman University in South Carolina. After finishing with degrees in political science and public policy, the hardworking and focused graduate crossed the ocean to study in London, earning a Masters Degree in Philosophy. But after five years in the East and abroad, Molly could no longer ignore the call to return to Montana. Molly currently lives in Billings where she is employed at the political consulting firm, Hilltop Public Solutions. She has been a member of MCV for more than a year, and recently was appointed to the Yellowstone Chapter Board.

Molly's cheerful personality and easy-going attitude make her a welcome addition to the Chapter board and many other organizations in Billings. This Masters Degree graduate knows you're never too old to enjoy a Disney movie- in fact, Molly explains that one of her favorite advocates for conservation is none other than WALL-E, the animated robot from Walt Disney's futuristic movie. Laughs aside, Molly notes the dangerous "slippery slope" of consumerism that the movie depicts. In addition to her position on the MCV Chapter board, Molly is on the board of Forward Montana, Big Sky Democrats, and is a member of the Rotary Club and Billings Jaycees.

When life in Billings gets too messy, Molly visits her parents in Whitefish, catching up on life and reminding herself what it was she learned to love about Montana as a fourteen year-old. Remembering the rugged peaks and lakes that ignited a spark in her as a youth, the since grown-up Molly reminds us that "Montana is truly the last best place and we need to keep it that way."

Forward Montana

From Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia

Forward Montana is a 501(c)4 non-profit organization located in Missoula, Montana.^[1] It is described as a "non-profit, non-partisan organization dedicated to training, mobilizing, and electing a new generation of progressive leaders in Montana".^[2]

It was co-founded by Billings born blogger Matt Singer, along with several members of the Montana Public Interest Research Group and The Associated Students of The University of Montana, in 2006.^[3]

Forward Montana played a critical role in the 2007 municipal election in Missoula, unseating conservative incumbent Missoula City Council member Don Nicolson in a close race with progressive candidate, Pam Walzer.^[4] The organization used their Pink Bunnies (<http://www.pinkbunnies.org/>) campaign to register young voters, and turn them out for the election. The campaign proved interesting enough to warrant Missoula Mayor John Engen to issue a proclamation, making the day before voter registration closed "Official Pink Bunny Day" citywide.^[5]

During the weeks and months running up to the election, Forward Montana registered more than 1,000 voters—more than one-third of all the city's new registrants. It launched the Pink Bunnies get-out-the-vote campaign, organized events such as Candidates Gone Wild, made hundreds of phone calls, and in general, worked to rouse a demographic often apathetic in the realm of local politics.^[4]

Forward Montana helped turn out hundreds of voters using candidate forums like Candidates Gone Wild, in which candidate's ideas were not relayed in standard Q&A style forums, but in a talent show.^[6]

Recently, after the beatings of two members of Missoula's LGBT community, Forward Montana co-organized the rally "We Are Missoula... Stand Up, Speak OUT!" The rally drew over 300 people, with help from groups like Western Montana Gay & Lesbian Community Center and the YWCA of Missoula.^[7]

CHASE MOHNEY

Born and raised in Great Falls, Chase is an Associate with Trilogy Interactive, an online marketing strategy and consulting firm for progressive candidates and causes in Berkeley, CA. Though he is currently an expat, Chase finds as many occasions as possible to get back to Montana to ski, fish, or just enjoy the uninterrupted vistas he misses living in San Francisco. He first got involved with Forward Montana because of his commitment to helping ensure a prosperous and just future for the state that will always be his home. He stayed for John Bacino's glasses.

CHRIS CAVAZOS

He's got a dog that he loves very much. He also likes the banjo, his beard, obscure music, and traveling to Wisconsin.

He's important and smart too.

MOLLY BELL

Born in the Cleveland area, Molly Bell moved to Big Sky Country at the age of fourteen and attended West High School in Billings. After working as an organizer for several different nonprofits in Montana focused on social justice issues, Molly now works as an associate at a political consulting firm in Billings.

Besides politics, Molly enjoys travel, good music, literature, coffee, microbrews, and other hipster-type things. She strongly dislikes styrofoam packaging, mostly because of the sound it makes when touched.

AARON BROWNING

As you can see, Aaron likes icebergs. A lot. He also loves his awesome life in Billings, Montana. It consists mainly of winning elections, but also sometimes riding a snowboard or paddling down a river. Aaron is pretty sure his dog is smarter and more attractive than Cavazos' pooch, but he's not going to push the issue.

JOHN BACINO

John was born and raised in Helena but has since detoured through D.C.; Brussels; Grinnell, Iowa; Great Falls; and Brooklyn, New York before returning home to Missoula in 2008 as Forward Montana's Chief of Stuff. Somewhere along the line we stopped paying him, so now he volunteers. In his spare time he studies Law and exercises his rights, all of them.

JOHN BRUEGGEMAN

John was elected to the Forward Montana Board of Directors in 2012. He formerly served as a state senator in the Montana legislature. John enjoys Flathead Lake, Post It Notes, and a well tailored suit. He is consistently voted 'totally the best' by the Forward Montana staff.

Experience

- Campaign manager for one of only five Democratic state senate candidates nationwide who beat an incumbent Republican in 2010. Aaron has racked up a very impressive set of upset state legislative campaign victories each cycle since 2002.
- Helped form and then manage the America Votes affiliate roundtable in Montana, bringing together diverse organizations across the state to build a permanent infrastructure for progressive advocacy, campaign, and accountability.
- Trained hundreds of activists, candidates and campaign managers in community organizing, leadership development, candidate recruitment and political campaign management at WORC and Wellstone Action! workshops.
- Organized numerous winning grassroots issue campaigns, resulting in significant changes in local and state public policies on the environment, agriculture, and economic issues.

Aaron was born and raised just outside Boise, Idaho, but left for the more rugged and rural Montana in 1995. He studied history at the University of Montana-

Missoula, graduated from Montana State University-Billings, and has a master's degree in political management from George Washington University.

Instead of sleeping, Aaron can often be found snowboarding at any of the West's epic ski areas, floating down one of its legendary rivers, or just out and about with his dog Rocky.

Billings Women Speak Out for Bullock at Candidate's Event

September 21st, 2012

Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana commends Bullock's connection to real concerns of Montana women

Billings, MT – Today, Democratic candidate for Governor, Attorney General Steve Bullock, listened to local women discuss the issues facing Montana women and families this election season. The group included over 20 women and represented a wide range of women from all walks of Montana life. Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana, Planned Parenthood of Montana's political arm, applauded the candidate's outreach and again urged women voters to support the Bullock-Walsh ticket this November.

Stacey Anderson, Director of Public Affairs for Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana said, "Bullock has again demonstrated the kind of leadership we need in the Governor's office. Montana women deserve a Governor who carries compassion and understanding for women across the state."

Attorney General Bullock has been an advocate for women's health throughout his tenure as Attorney General. Attorney General Bullock supports federal family planning funding, reproductive health care access and enjoys wide support from health advocacy organizations this election cycle. Because of the significant support Attorney General Bullock lends to women's health issues, Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana has endorsed his candidacy for Montana State Governor.

Said Anderson, "In this election, there can be no question about the candidate's stance on women's health. Former Washington Congressman Rick Hill is as bad on women's issues as Attorney General Bullock is good. Just this week in Helena Hill showed he's more in step with mainstream conservative Republicans like Todd Akin than Montana

Our take on the Gubernatorial HealthCare Forum

September 26th, 2012

On Monday, I attended the Montana Chamber of Commerce's Healthcare Forum featuring ex-Congressman Rick Hill and Montana's Attorney General Steve Bullock, the two candidates vying to be Montana's next Governor. As a representative of a health care organization that provides services to over 16,000 Montana women and men, I was interested to see what both candidates had to say about the complex challenges facing health care delivery in our state.

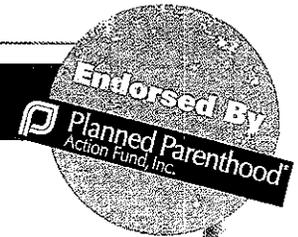

Congressman Rick Hill was up first. Fielding questions from Marnee Banks (<https://www.facebook.com/ReporterMarneeBanks>), Hill outlined three policy points Montanans could expect from his administration:

1. Hill reminded us that he intensely dislikes the Affordable Care Act, but refused to address what Montanans already know about the Affordable Care Act – it ceases discrimination against women by ending denial of coverage for preexisting conditions, it allows young Montanans to stay on their health insurance longer to better prepare them for today's challenging environment, and it allows women to access preventive care services without the financial burden of high co-pays. Even a simple acknowledgement that the ACA has improved thousands of Montanans lives would have been appropriate for anyone who wants to be in charge of health care in Montana.
2. Hill confirmed something else we all know: He is VERY FOND of private health insurance companies. As a former board member of Blue Cross Blue Shield (and some of its for-profit subsidiaries), he has intimate knowledge of the business practices and priorities of the insurance industry. Hill would rather our poorest citizens pay 2% of their income to a private insurer than perhaps, I don't know, buy groceries for their family or pay childcare so they can go to their

Kim Gillan for Congress

- 100% voting record with Planned Parenthood Advocates of Montana⁴
- Opposed raising insurance rates on Montana women⁵
- Opposed restricting access to age-appropriate sex education in Montana schools⁶
- Supported family planning funding for Montana health centers, serving almost 26,000 men and women⁷

Steve Bullock for Governor

- Supports a woman's right to make her own health care decisions. Period.
- Would veto any attempt to repeal Montana's non-gender health insurance law, which prohibits insurance companies from discriminating based on gender
- Supports comprehensive, age-appropriate sex education for young people that includes information on both abstinence and contraception

COMPLAINT AGAINST GOVENOR BULLOCK, ETAL

EXHIBIT 27

Governors associations' activities in Montana race

AUGUST 18, 2012 8:41 PM • MISSOULIAN STATE BUREAU

HELENA – Here's a look at activity by the Democratic and Republican governors associations in the 2012 Montana governor's race.

Democratic Governors Association:

The DGA has given about $96,000 to the Montana Democratic Party since January 2012.

In addition, the DGA formed the Democratic Governors Association-Montana PAC. Through May 19, the state PAC reported to the state political practices commissioner's office it raised $607,000 and spent $595,973 to leave $11,027 in cash on hand on May 19.

The major donors to the Democratic Governors Association-Montana were UA Political Education Committee, or the United Association of Journeyman and Apprentices of the Plumbing & Pipefitting Industry), Annapolis, Md., $50,000; Machinists Non Partisan Political League, Upper Marlboro, Md., $50,000; International Association of Fire Fighters FIREPAC, Washington, $100,000; Laborers' Political League, Washington, $125,000; United Food and Commercial Workers Active Ballot Club, Washington, $100,000; International Longshoremen's Association COPE, New York, $50,000; Ironworkers Political Education Fund, Washington, $85,000; Sheet Metal Workers International Political Education League, Washington, $47,000.

Its major expenses were Montana JET PAC, $500,000; Montana Democratic Party, $61,723; and VR Research, $34,249.

As for Montana Jobs, Education and Technology PAC, or Montana JET PAC, it reported forming earlier this year to make independent expenditures on behalf of Democrat Steve Bullock's campaign and against Republican Rick Hill's campaign.

Its entire $607,000 in receipts came from Democratic Governors Association-Montana PAC. It reported spending about $72,500 so far.

Montana JET PAC's largest expenditure was nearly $52,000 to Great America Media, Washington, D.C., for a television ad defending Bullock against an attack by the state Republican Party against Bullock for not joining a brief with the U.S. Supreme Court in support of a challenge to the federal health care law.

Its other major expense was $19,500 to the Mellman Group, a political consulting firm from Washington, D.C., for research.

Manage the Montana State AFL-CIO's political program. The key areas my position focused on were Member to Member Field Outreach, Coalition work, and Legislative Strategy.

Field- Developed the Member to Member political program for 2010 election cycle. Managed a team of canvassers to communicate with the Montana State AFL-CIO's members on our targeted legislative races. Worked with local affiliates to identify and recruit union members to run for the Montana State Legislature.

Coalition- Represented the Montana AFL-CIO in Political, Community, and Legislative Coalitions. Identified new opportunities to engage in coalition work and in the community.

Legislative- Worked with individual affiliates to identify policy gaps that could be filled through legislation at the Montana State Legislature. Worked with Pro-Working Families Legislators to develop and request these bills. Represented the Montana State AFL-CIO as the chief lobbyist. Devised legislative strategy, ran Montana State AFL-CIO Labor Lobby, tracked bills, and developed Montana State AFL-CIO transmittal report and final scorecard.

The Montana State AFL-CIO is hiring Field Organizers!

The Montana AFL-CIO is the largest organization working on economic justice in the state of Montana. With over 45,000 members statewide, we are the strongest voice for working families and workers' rights. Seeing the attacks on the middle class in states like Wisconsin or Ohio, we need to pressure lawmakers to put working families first and fight to end corporate greed.

Responsibilities

- Contact, persuade, and turn out pro-working family voters through canvassing and phone banking
- Enter and maintain data into our voter file
- Coordinate with other large scale canvasses in the area

Requirements

- Ability to connect with voters quickly and build trust
- Attention to detail
- Ability to work long and irregular hours
- Must be self motivated and a team player

As a Field Organizer, you can expect:

- Thorough issue and skills trainings

- Gain valuable experience working with Labor, on a variety of issues
- Campaign experience
- Progressive and welcoming work environment
- Full time, $12.00 per hour

If you have a strong commitment to grassroots organizing, promoting the progressive movement and living your values reply with your current resume with cover letter to chr...@mtaflcio.org with the subject line "Field Organizer" or contact our local office at 406.442.1708

Congressman Rick Hill: Leading the fight to slash Medicare and privatize Social Security

D.C. Congressman RICK HILL wants to be Governor of Montana. But RICK HILL has a history of voting against the Montana seniors who worked all their lives to make the Treasure State what it is.

In Congress, RICK HILL supported a $115 billion dollar reduction in Medicare.⁽¹⁾

Instead of helping to protect social security for the future, Congressman RICK HILL supported privatizing social security – a move that would cost our seniors dearly.⁽²⁾ He actually said that “programs like Social Security and Medicare are crippling America.”⁽³⁾

Congressman RICK HILL has been playing politics as usual, rather than working to protect Montana’s seniors. We don’t need RICK HILL as our Governor.

Congressman BOB ROBERTS shameful attacks on our public land and water

See how he's attacked clean water and the best hunting and camping in the country.

In Montana, our heritage is defined by crystal clear water, unparalleled hunting, and our public lands. Congressman BOB ROBERTS sides with out-of-state special interests, denying Montanans access to rivers, streams, and public lands. If elected Governor, BOB ROBERTS would shut Montanans off from their favorite places to hunt, fish, and recreate. That's why BOB ROBERTS made the League of Conservation Voters' "Dirty Dozen" list of the most polluting politicians in the nation.

Voted AGAINST Montana's state parks, fishing access sites and places for our families to hike and camp.⁽¹⁾

Voted AGAINST protecting our best hunting, fishing and camping areas.⁽²⁾

Voted AGAINST efforts to protect our drinking water from cancer causing arsenic.⁽³⁾
