Hello again,

After having an opportunity to view the pictures submitted as evidence, I note that the sign posted at N. Kootenai Ck & hwy 93 does indeed have the attribution. The picture was taken from a distance that hides the writing, but if the photo is enlarged to the maximum amount, the attribution is visible, not legible, but visible. It is more visible in the photo I've attached.

The picture of the sign posted on the forest service sign must have been taken a while ago as I removed that sign and posted the one attached on Saturday, May 18th.

As previously stated, I have hand written the attribution on the lower right of all the signs that are posted.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.
