4. While Respondent continues to deny the allegations contained in the Commissioner’s decision, she does acknowledge that there may be sufficient evidence to permit a court or jury to determine that she violated the provisions of law listed, above.
5. The Commissioner and the Respondent agree that execution of this settlement agreement by both parties, and a payment of the sum of $2,000.00 by the Respondent, fully and finally resolves all of the issues as set forth in the Decision.

6. Simultaneously with the return of the executed settlement agreement the Respondent will remit to the Commissioner $2,000.00, on a check made out to: "Commissioner of Political Practices" and mailed to the Office of the Commissioner of Political Practices, 1209 8th Avenue, P.O. 7. In consideration of payment of the civil fine referenced above, the Commissioner agrees not to pursue any further administrative or court proceedings against the Respondent or other persons that may be named or unnamed in the Decision, based on the matters discussed in the Decision.
8. The Respondent enters into this agreement to avoid litigation and to resolve and settle this dispute with the Commissioner. It is understood and agreed that the payment of the civil fine referenced above, and execution of this settlement agreement by the Respondent is accepted as the sole consideration for full satisfaction and compromise of what may be disputed claims.
9. The Commissioner and the Respondent fully and forever release and discharge each other and their respective officials, officers, members, employees, successors, assigns, agents, ostensible agents, attorneys, and representatives from any and all actions, claims, causes of action, demands, expenses, damages or injuries, whether asserted or unasserted, known or unknown, foreseen or unforeseen, arising out of the matters investigated by the Commissioner and summarized in the Decision.
