My Commission Expires:

From August through September of 2019, Superintendent Elsie Arntzen ran Facebook ads for her re-election campaign that she failed to disclose in her September 30, 2019 C-5. Then, in May of 2020, Arntzen spent even more money on Facebook ads targeting Montana voters and, again, failed to disclose those ads in both her C-7E that should have been filed before the primary, and her C-5 that was filed on June 15, 2020.

According to Facebook's ad center library, the Facebook page "Elsie For Montana" has spent $1,413 total on Facebook ads targeting Montana voters so far this election.

Supporting ads and CERS reports are attached.

This failure to report campaign ads is a violation of the expenditure disclosure requirements of MCA 13-37-229. Additionally, Arntzen's failure to report her May ads is a violation of MCA 13-37-226 because she did not disclose them on any C-7E leading up to the June 2 primary, or subsequent May 20 C-5.

Arntzen's failure to accurately report her campaign spending on multiple occasions demonstrates a clear intent to hide her campaign expenses from the public. As an elected official, it's incumbent on Arntzen to know and adhere to Montana's campaign finance laws.

Arntzen doesn't get to violate election transparency laws just because she's bankrolling her own campaign. Montanans have a right to know just how much she's spending to buy her reelection.
