Dear Commissioner Motl:

I am writing to file this complaint because JC Kantorowicz has violated multiple campaign finance laws. Last week, the residents of Senate District 10 began receiving the "Montana Christian Journal" in their mailboxes. The journal was mailed to the households by Mr. Kantorowicz and Randy Pinocci. However, in looking at Mr. Kantorowicz's campaign finance report, it is apparent Mr. Kantorowicz has not fully disclosed the amounts paid and/or received contributions from the Montana Christian Journal or some other source to pay for the mailing.

The violations are the following:

1. Mr. Kantorowicz has received contributions from undisclosed, unknown, or corporate sources in violation of § 13-35-227, MCA and/or § 13-37-217, MCA. In his report, Mr. Kantorowicz reports the cost of his ad at $25.00. However, inside the journal, it shows Mr. Kantorowicz has placed ads on at least 2.5 pages (the advertisement and his column). The fair market value of this advertising, according to the rates sheets for the journal, is $1,484.00 (two full page ads and a half page ad). Moreover, the front page of the journal shows Mr. Kantorowicz's logo which is another form of advertising. Twenty five dollars does not even come close to matching the fair market value of the advertising in the journal. For example, please see the rate sheet from the Cascade Courier for a relative comparison.

Moreover, Mr. Kantorowicz's report does not show who paid for the printing or layout of the journal Mr. Kantorowicz mailed to the residents of Senate District 10. It is believed these materials were printing at Rivers Edge Printing in Great Falls.

It should be noted Montana Christian Business Directory, LLC has the same address as the Montana Christian Journal. On information and belief, it is believed the Montana Christian Journal is a product of the Montana Christian Business Directory, LLC.

2. Mr. Kantorowicz has violated § 13-37-229, MCA by failing to report the costs associated with printing the journal for his use as a mailer, the cost to layout the ads in the journal, and who provided the funds to pay for his share of the advertising in the journal. Moreover, it is not clear if the cost for mailing (IPS) reflects the true cost of the mailing.
3. Mr. Kantorowicz has violated § 13-37-201, MCA, § 13-37-202, MCA, § 13-37-205, MCA, § 13-37-229, MCA and ARM 44.10.405 by failing to register and report contributions to other candidates. The journal contains advertising and other election materials for other candidates including Sheridan Buck, Greg Gianforte, and Kristin Juras. By mailing the journal throughout the district, Mr. Kantorowicz acted as a political committee because he disseminated electioneering materials. He was required to report and disclose this spending.
4. Mr. Kantorowicz has violated 13-35-225, MCA because the mailing he is sending out does not have the appropriate disclaimers. Moreover, Mr. Kantorowicz is himself hand delivering journals with no attribution.
