I was called the day before the election to see if I could help at Busby as I had done it in the past and they really need someone. Enclosed is a pamphlet that was given out outside the door where we had the voting booths set up. This was in the same building that the booths were in but outside the door. I removed a bunch of them from the booths as they were leaving them. I did not know at the time if it was legal to take these into the booths to help with an individuals voting but did not believe it was legal to leave them so I kept removing them. I stewed about the legality of it for a couple of days and then decided to contact the secretary of states office to report it and they said I should file an official complaint. I am enclosing a copy of the form. It was on bright pink paper and I have the original if you want it. I did not report it to Big Horn County as we are labeled prejudiced if we question such practices. This has nothing to do with the Indian voting but the handing out of the pamphlets

Complaints must be:

- signed
- notarized
- delivered in person or by certified mail.
