Good afternoon,

Thanks for reaching out. COPP would require the number of pieces sent out without attribution, the date/s they were sent, and the 'paid for by' attribution message that should have been included. Please send this information as soon as possible. Thank you.

If you have any questions, please call or email for more information.

Good afternoon,

We are writing to share that we recently discovered we inadvertently distributed approximately 50 of the attached notecards that were noncompliant. These informational notecards were available at the library for interested patrons and all were picked up. Upon learning that we needed to add information to be in compliance, we immediately pulled the notecards and are actively reprinting as we speak.

We regret the error and are working to immediately correct our mistake.

Apologies,
