Hi,

I spoke with Cheryl this morning about a disclaimer error I made on my radio ads. I received a call this morning about 10:45 a.m. from a colleague that pointed out I may have forgotten to include that I was running as a Democrat in my radio ads. I immediately checked with the radio station and confirmed I had made the mistake of not identifying myself as a Democrat. I then called COPP and spoke with Cheryl to report my error. By 11:45 this morning I had re-recorded the correct disclaimer and they will run the correct disclaimer on all coming radio ads, beginning tomorrow. That is the soonest they can make the change.

The ads with the incorrect disclaimer ran from October 5-7, and Oct 10-11. Please let me know whether I need to follow up with any more reporting requirements on this issue to COPP. My apologies for the mistake.

Cheers,

Pat Flowers (SD 32)
