I have attached photos of some small items I had made for this election. I have only given out approximately 20 of the stars and 30 stickers. I ordered 300 of each. I was told that small items didn't need the attribution. Although I found it this can be true, I was not told to check with your office first. At this point I have made stickers to put on the back of these items. The issue is that I have about 110 of these magnet ones and as you can see the sticker won't fit. Any future ones can be set different but I am hoping I can at least get permission on those 110 to not have it. I apologize for this error as this is my very first involvement with an election in my life. I was following the advice of a person that has not run in quite some time and I believe this was not an issue then. Any advice and guidance would be greatly appreciated on this. If you need to you can call me at 406-951-1388. Thanks for your time and help. I will also wait for guidance before handing any of this out.

Good morning,

Re-email the information below and pictures and include what the attribution would be in the body of the email. You have followed the correct procedure. Whenever you have an item that is too small for attribution such as the items you reported, you simply need to let the CPP office know how many you have printed, the date, and what your attribution is (ie: Paid for by: Jon Doe, Address, and Party affiliation if a partisan race). We will maintain that on file.

In regards to adding or not using the ones you referred to I find them small enough not to have an attribution added and you may use them. I'll follow up with a quick call after 8am
