Hello,

It has come to my attention that one of the campaign managers in the Bitterroot has been caught stealing campaign signs of candidates she doesn't like. I've attached a video of her returning one sign and placing it where it had not previously been. I've also attached the investigating officer's report, in which the campaign manager admits she has stolen more signs and refuses to disclose where they are. I have also included the Youtube link to the Mayor pardoning her for the theft. I believe the part of the video relevant to this complaint is around the 59:50 mark. The hypocrisy of saying the Pledge of Allegiance, ..."with liberty and justice for all." and then "pardoning" the perp and reprimanding the victim is atrocious! [.TOWN OF STEVENSVILLE TOWN COUNCIL MEETING \(youtube.com\) \[youtube.com\]](#)

I have known Kim Dailey personally for several years and have known her to be a lady of the highest, most impeccable integrity and honesty. Kim is one of the sweetest, kindest ladies you'd ever meet and did nothing willful or otherwise to instigate the theft and subversion of her 1st Amendment rights that she's fallen victim to.

Theft is a criminal offense and should have been dealt with as such, but in the spirit of current, corrupt, biased politics, the Mayor has pardoned the thief! Yes, it's petty-theft. Yes it's a small-time incident but if this is allowed to fly it casts an incredibly dark shadow on the integrity of your office and anyone who supports the Mayor's decision. In my mind this is a politician (his agent, acting on his behalf, as his employee/volunteer/manager) violating the 1st Amendment rights of another candidate, committing theft, withholding information from a police officer, and walking free at the expense of Montanans everywhere. Because of her narcissistic, blatant disregard for our rule of law, campaign laws/rules and common decency her actions prove to the public that politicians and their staff are, "above the law!" That's NOT the look we should be portraying!

I greatly appreciate your time and all the help I've received from your office and will respect your decisions in this matter but from my perspective as a first time candidate, if this is allowed to stand it leaves an incredibly ugly stain on the integrity we should be standing for and I will represent if I'm elected.

Sincerely,
Dave Kesler III
