In the Matter of the Complaint of Gina Reilly Complainant, v.

MOTHERS AGAINST FILTHY FLYERS (an independent committee registered with the COPP); CAROLYN RADONICH, in her capacity as registered treasurer; and JOHN FITZPATRICK, candidate for Montana House District 76, and his candidate committee FITZ FOR 76, Respondents.

CAMPAIGN FINANCE AND PRACTICES COMPLAINT

Pursuant to §§ 13-37-111 and 13-37-121, MCA, and the rules of the Commissioner of Political Practices ("Commissioner" or "COPP") at ARM Title 44, chapter 11, the Complainant submits this complaint and respectfully requests that the Commissioner investigate and determine whether the Respondents have violated Montana's campaign finance and practices laws, Title 13, chapters 35 and 37, MCA, in connection with the June 2, 2026 Republican primary election for Montana House District 76. The supporting exhibits referenced herein (Exhibits A through O) are submitted in the accompanying Exhibit Packet.

Name: Gina Reilly

Relationship to the matter: member of the public

II. Respondents

a. Mothers Against Filthy Flyers ("MAFF") — a committee that registered with the COPP on May 13, 2026 (amended May 27, 2026) as an "Independent" committee, with mailing address 905 West Third Street, Anaconda, MT 59711, and primary depository listed as Valley Bank, 307 Park Ave., Anaconda, MT 59711. (Exhibit A.)

b. Carolyn Radonich — the individual listed on MAFF's Statement of Organization (Form C-2) as committee treasurer, same mailing address, with the personal email carolyn.radonich@proton.me and a listed telephone of (406) 437-4793. (Exhibit A.)

c. John Fitzpatrick and Fitz for 76 — John Fitzpatrick is a candidate in the June 2, 2026, Republican primary for Montana House District 76. His registered candidate committee is "Fitz for 76," PO Box 994, Anaconda, MT 59711 and a listed telephone of (406) 459-8407. He is named on the basis that, on information and belief, the MAFF committee is operated by or coordinated with him, directly or through his spouse acting as his agent, as set out below.

III. Jurisdiction

MAFF is a "political committee" that has registered with the COPP and has engaged in reportable election activity in a Montana election. The conduct complained of concerns the June 2, 2026 primary for House District 76 and is within the Commissioner's authority to investigate and enforce under §§ 13-37-111 and 13-37-121, MCA, and Title 13, chapters 35 and 37, MCA.

This complaint does not seek any pre-election relief and is not directed at the outcome of the June 2, 2026 primary. The Complainant requests review and a determination on the merits, together with the relief described in Part IX, on the Commissioner's ordinary timeline.

IV. Summary of the Complaint

This complaint raises two matters. First, a stand-alone reporting violation: MAFF engaged in reportable election spending during the April 25–May 24, 2026 reporting period (including a paid advertisement published May 21, 2026), but filed no periodic finance report (Form C-6) by the May 30, 2026 deadline, and as of May 31, 2026 had filed no finance report at all. Second, a coordination matter: although MAFF presents itself as an "independent" committee of "mothers," its advertising shares a distinctive, custom creative element — an identical "nauseated face" graphic — and the same sourcing and rhetoric with advertising paid for by candidate John Fitzpatrick's own committee, Fitz for 76, in the same newspaper in the same week. On information and belief, MAFF is operated by or coordinated with the Fitzpatrick campaign; if so, its spending consists of coordinated expenditures — unreported in-kind contributions to Fitz for 76 — its "Independent" registration is inaccurate, and its "Paid for by MAFF" attribution conceals the true source of the communications.

V. Statement of Facts

1. The race. John Fitzpatrick is a candidate in the June 2, 2026 Republican primary for Montana House District 76.
2. MAFF's registration. MAFF filed a Statement of Organization (Form C-2) with the COPP on May 13, 2026, amended May 27, 2026, identifying itself as an "Independent" committee, with treasurer Carolyn Radonich and a primary depository at Valley Bank, Anaconda. (Exhibit A.)
3. MAFF's filing names Fitzpatrick as supported and Schreiber as opposed. On its Form C-2, MAFF lists "John Fitzpatrick" under Position "Support" and "Trish Schreiber HD 76" under Position "Oppose," with a broader slate tracking the current intra-party division in the Montana Republican Party. (Exhibit A.)
4. MAFF's paid advertising. MAFF placed a paid advertisement in the Seeley Swan Pathfinder, and other local papers. The advertisement appears in the May 21, 2026 issue (Exhibit C) and again in the May 28, 2026 issue. The advertisement lists a slate of legislative candidates (including Trish Schreiber, HD 76), states that recipients' homes are "being polluted with disgusting, filthy flyers in support of these candidates," attributes those flyers to "School Freedom Fund, Trish Schreiber, Finley Warden, and Accountability in State Government," and carries the attribution "Paid for by MAFF, Mothers Against Filthy Flyers, Carolyn Radonich, Treasurer, PO Box 123, Anaconda, MT 59711." (Exhibit F.)

5. No finance report filed. As of May 31, 2026, MAFF's Committee Report List in the COPP's Campaign Electronic Reporting System (CERS) shows "No data available in table — Showing 0 to 0 of 0 entries" — i.e., no periodic finance report on file, including for the April 25–May 24 reporting period. (Exhibit D.)
6. Identical custom graphic across MAFF and Fitz for 76 advertising. The MAFF advertisement and a Fitz for 76 advertisement ("How California Trish Is NOT Protecting Our Rural Values"), both published in the Seeley Swan Pathfinder on May 21, 2026, display the same distinctive, custom "nauseated face" graphic. (Exhibit E, side-by-side; Exhibits F and G.)
7. Shared sourcing and method. Both committees' advertising names the same out-of-state sources (including School Freedom Fund and "California Trish" Schreiber) and employs the same method of bundling Ms. Schreiber with those entities, using matching "filthy/disgusting" rhetoric. A further Fitz for 76 advertisement ("Don't Let California 'Tax-Hike' Schreiber Destroy Your Healthcare", Exhibit H) and a Fitz for 76 campaign piece ("Get This!", Exhibit I) use the same approach. The Fitz for 76 pieces carry the attribution "Paid for by Fitz for 76, PO Box 994, Anaconda, MT 59711, Republican."
8. Possession of the candidate's household mail. On or about May 13, 2026, the "Mothers Against Filthy Flyers" Facebook page posted a photograph of campaign mail (Exhibit J). One mailpiece in that photograph bears a postal label addressed to "Constance Fitzpatrick" — the candidate's spouse — "or Current Resident," in Anaconda, MT 59711 (Exhibit K). On information and belief, a photograph of mail delivered to the Fitzpatrick household, posted from the MAFF account, indicates that the page and committee are operated by or at the direction of the candidate or his spouse acting as his agent.
9. Indicia of a nominal treasurer and concealed contact information. The telephone number listed for treasurer Radonich on the Form C-2, (406) 437-4793 (Exhibit A), is an active cellular number with no subscriber name associated (Verizon Wireless – MT) (Exhibit M). A separate Montana Secretary of State filing for MAFF, filed May 18, 2026 by Carolyn Radonich, lists a different telephone, (406) 560-4976 (Exhibit L), which is likewise an active cellular number with no subscriber name (Exhibit N). A published directory lists the landline at the registered address (905 W 3rd St, Anaconda) as 563-8170 (Exhibit O), matching neither number on the state filings. On information and belief, these facts are consistent with a nominal or figurehead treasurer and with an effort to obscure the persons actually controlling the committee.
10. Mailing address discrepancy. MAFF's registered mailing address on both its Form C-2 and its Secretary of State filing is 905 West Third Street, Anaconda (Exhibits A, L), but the attribution printed on its advertising gives "PO Box 123, Anaconda" (Exhibit F) — a different address, the registrant of which the Complainant asks the Commissioner to verify.

VI. Count One — Failure to File a Required Periodic Report

Independent committees must file periodic finance reports (Form C-6) disclosing their contributions and expenditures for each reporting period in which they have reportable election activity, §§ 13-37-225, 13-37-226, 13-37-228, 13-37-229, and 13-37-232, MCA; ARM 44.11.401 and 44.11.501. For the June 2026 primary, the reporting period of April 25–May 24, 2026 carried a filing deadline of May 30, 2026, § 13-37-226(2), MCA. (Exhibit B.)

MAFF registered on May 13, 2026 and engaged in reportable election spending within that period, including the paid advertisement published May 21, 2026. (Exhibits A, C, F.) The required Form C-6 was therefore due May 30, 2026. As of May 31, 2026, MAFF had filed no finance report. (Exhibit D.) This reporting violation is independent of the coordination question in Count Two: it does not depend on the amount spent or on proof of any person's intent. A person who intentionally or negligently violates the reporting provisions of chapter 37 is subject to civil liability under § 13-37-128, MCA.

VII. Count Two — Coordination; Unreported In-Kind Contributions; False Attribution; Inaccurate Statement of Organization

An "independent committee" is one that is not controlled, directly or indirectly, by a candidate and that does not coordinate with a candidate. "Coordinated" means "made in cooperation with, in consultation with, at the request of, or with the express prior consent of a candidate or political committee or an agent" thereof, § 13-1-101, MCA; see ARM 44.11.602. A coordinated expenditure is a "contribution" that must be reported, § 13-1-101, MCA, and ARM 44.11.401.

The identical custom "nauseated face" graphic appearing on both the MAFF advertisement and the Fitz for 76 advertisement, published in the same newspaper in the same week, together with the shared sourcing, shared targets, and shared rhetoric (Exhibits E, F, G, H, I), indicates common authorship and is inconsistent with genuine independence. The remaining facts corroborate that conclusion: the MAFF Facebook page's possession and posting of mail addressed to the candidate's spouse (Exhibits J, K); the indicia of a nominal treasurer and undisclosed contact information (Exhibits L, M, N, O); and the unexplained PO Box used in MAFF's attribution (Exhibits A, F).

If MAFF is operated by or coordinated with candidate Fitzpatrick or his agent, then: (a) its "Independent" designation on the Form C-2 is inaccurate; (b) its expenditures are coordinated expenditures — in-kind contributions to Fitz for 76 — that the Fitz for 76 committee was required to report under §§ 13-37-229 and 13-37-232, MCA, and that count toward the per-election contribution limit under § 13-37-216, MCA, a limit that a mass-advertising operation may exceed; (c) the "Paid for by MAFF" attribution is materially misleading as to the true source of the communications, contrary to § 13-35-225, MCA; and (d) the Form C-2 and treasurer information are inaccurate. The Complainant asks the Commissioner to determine whether the facts establish these violations. Persons who make or receive contributions or expenditures in violation of these provisions are subject to civil liability under § 13-37-128, MCA.

VIII. Requested Investigative Steps

The Complainant respectfully requests that the Commissioner, in investigating this matter, obtain and review the following, using the Commissioner's investigative authority:

1. MAFF's bank records at Valley Bank, including the identity of all contributors to, and vendors paid by, MAFF.
2. The identity of the vendor(s) and designer(s) who produced the MAFF advertising, and a comparison to the vendor(s) and designer(s) who produced the Fitz for 76 advertising, including invoices, design files, and the source of the shared "nauseated face" graphic.
3. The Seeley Swan Pathfinder's advertising records for the MAFF advertisement, including who placed and paid for it (account, contact, and payment information), along with those of the Anaconda Leader and Post and Mail for the same period.
4. The identity of the person(s) who create, control, and post content for the "Mothers Against Filthy Flyers" Facebook page, and the source of the photograph of mail addressed to Constance Fitzpatrick.
5. Verification of the role of treasurer Carolyn Radonich; verification of the subscriber identity for the telephone numbers (406) 437-4793 and (406) 560-4976; and verification of the registrant of "PO Box 123, Anaconda" shown in MAFF's attribution.
6. A determination of whether MAFF's expenditures are coordinated expenditures and therefore unreported in-kind contributions to the Fitzpatrick campaign that should have been reported and counted toward the applicable contribution limit.

IX. Requested Relief

The Complainant respectfully requests that the Commissioner accept this complaint, open an investigation, and:

1. Find a violation on Count One (failure to file the required periodic report) and on each violation established under Count Two (inaccurate Statement of Organization; unreported coordinated in-kind contributions; excess over the applicable contribution limit; and false or misleading attribution).
2. Pursue the maximum civil penalties available under § 13-37-128, MCA — up to $500, or three times the amount of each unlawful contribution or expenditure, whichever is greater, per violation.

Refer the matter for prosecution under § 13-37-124, MCA, to the county attorney of the county in which the violations occurred. Because the violations consist of election communications published in Powell County (the Seeley Swan Pathfinder is published at Deer Lodge, in Powell County) and disseminated to voters throughout House District 76 — which comprises Missoula, Lewis and Clark, Powell, Granite, and Anaconda–Deer Lodge Counties — the Complainant respectfully requests referral to the county attorney of Powell County or Granite County. If the designated county attorney fails to act within 30 days, or waives prosecution, the Complainant requests that the Commissioner initiate the appropriate action, § 13-37-124, MCA.

3. Take any further action authorized by Title 13, chapters 35 and 37, MCA.

X. Verification

I declare that the statements of fact in this complaint are true and correct to the best of my knowledge, information, and belief. Matters stated on information and belief are believed by me to be true based on the documents attached as exhibits and the circumstances described above.

How Seeley Lake got schools (Part II)

By Cheri Thompson, Seeley Lake Historical Society

In the previous installment of this series, we looked at the challenges the early town faced relocating the younger children. One of the greatest challenges was the lack of a suitable building in Seeley Lake. The Ekerd area had a log one room school house, but Seeley didn't.

The first school was at the corner of Morrell Road and Highway 83. Depending on the number of children attending, and who owned what, the school often moved - even at one time with half the grades at the building at the Presbyterian church and the other half in a similar building north of town.

Then in 1955, the new school with four classrooms was dedicated at its current location.

By the late 1950s parents and community members were starting to wonder and ask why we couldn't have a high school. The valley kids from the northern Missoula Lake County line all the way down the valley, through Greenough and Potomac, all went to school in Missoula. Noted as the longest bus ride in the United States, the word around kids made the two hour bus ride, twice a day, five days a week.

In order to be at school by 8 a.m., the bus started at the north tip around 6:30 a.m. and completed its return run by 6 p.m.

In early 1960, a group of concerned parents in the Seeley Lake area published a newspaper pamphlet entitled "Why Not a High School at Seeley Lake?" outlining the need for a local high school. The Fact-Finding Committee of the Seeley Lake PTA headed up the charge for the new school and by using the by-laws and the policies and procedure documents of the state P.T.A., they formed a plan to approach the Missoula County School Board. The committee was made up of names that still resonate to this day: C. E. and Helen Rich, Marshall Gray, Bernard and Sally Wahl, Tex Baker, Ted Anders, Myrtle Eldridge, Jack Lee and Bill Gordon. Forming an elementary school district was much easier than forming a High School District, as the difficulty of making 5 year olds ride a bus for long distances was readily understood by everyone, but not so for high school students.

With their goal in mind, the Seeley Swan Attendance Center, the name for a small high school planning committee set forth to gather any and all information that they thought might be needed. With more than 40 subcommittees gathering such data as: the permanence of the community and it's growth, Users, place in the community, possible design, potential for incoming high school students from surrounding communities, number of students enrolled in present elementary schools, current high school attendance, community and surrounding area growth in 4 years or 8 years, how many students were dropping out, how many were boarding in Missoula, how many families would move to Seeley if there was a high school, and so and on. The P.T.A. committee wanted to approach the Missoula County School Board from a position of strength not kinds. Their research supported the construction of a high school. The community's were growing and stabilizing, and the number of students that would stay in school and graduate would increase without the hostile exposure.

In October of 1960, the Seeley Lake P.T.A. High School Fact-Finding Committee sent a letter to the Missoula County School Board requesting a meeting with the board, some Seeley Lake representatives, and the press. The chairman of the board, John Taylor came back and said he would bring it up at the next board meeting, but he was reluctant to call a meeting until the committee secured funding for the project. To be continued.

DPHHS equips licensed EMS agencies statewide with specialized tools to support children with autism

By Jon Ebelt, Montana Department of Health and Human Services

Department of Public Health and Human Services Director Charlie Brereton today announced the successful distribution of Cot Carter Kits to every licensed EMS agency across the state.

This milestone ensures that all Montana ambulance services and Quick Response Units (QRUs) licensed to provide pre-hospital medical care are now equipped with specialized tools to support children with autism and other sensory processing needs during emergencies.

"Providing these kits to every licensed agency ensures that no matter where a family is in Montana, our first responders have the resources to provide specialized, compassionate care," Dir. Brereton said. "This initiative is a testament to the strong partnership between the state and our local EMS providers as we work together to support the unique needs of every patient."

Carter Kits are sensory bags containing clinically approved items — such as noise-cancelling earmuffs, weighted blankets, non-verbal communication cards, fidget toys, and sunglasses — designed to help first responders calm and focus children with Autism Spectrum Disorder (ASD) or those experiencing sensory overload during traumatic events. The kits are inspired by Carter, a young Michigan boy with autism.

"We are excited to have these options to help reduce the stress and anxiety that can exist in a medical emergency," said Koren Bloom, a pediatric and Coordinator for Safe Kids Yellowstone County at American Medical Response (AMR) Billings. "Children with special needs, including autism, can easily become overwhelmed by the chaos of an emergency. These tools allow us to make these encounters much less stressful and traumatic for our patients."

Funding for the Carter Kits was provided by the DPHHS Children's Special Health Services program, which provides financial assistance and support for Montana children with special health care needs and chronic conditions. The Department's Emergency Medical Services for Children program spearheaded the $43,000 statewide rollout.

Four Carter Kit specialized instructors from the Billings area will lead local education on ASD awareness and kit usage. This training equips emergency personnel with practical communication strategies to reduce distress for children and families, while also fostering a statewide network of knowledgeable professionals.

Furthering this mission, Simulation in Motion - Montana (SIM-MT) has integrated Carter Kits into its pediatric simulation training. This allows EMS providers to practice using the sensory tools in realistic, high-pressure scenarios, particularly those including children with autism. This hands-on approach allows EMS providers to practice each tool's application, bypassing cutscenes during critical moments.

"These kits are invaluable for treating a hypersensitive patient who is recently lured to the pre-hospital environment," said Lee Roberts, Clinical Partnerships Lead for SIM-MT. "We've seen firsthand how they help clinicians provide better care in emergency rooms and in the field."

The EMSC program encourages all emergency response agencies to actively utilize these resources and participate in ongoing training.

For more information on Carter Kits or the EMSC program, please visit the EMSC website or contact Kelly Little, EMSC Program Manager, at 406-444-0868 or Kelly.little@mt.gov.
